

The Candlemass Road

This is a beautiful, moving tale from the bestselling author of the Flashman Papers. To the young Lady Margaret Dacre, raised in the rich security of Queen Elizabeths court, the Scottish border was a land of blood and brutal violence, where raid and murder were commonplace, and her broad inheritance lay at the mercy of the outlaw riders and feuding tribes of Englands last frontier. Beyond the laws protection, alone but for her house servants and an elderly priest, she could wait helpless in her lonely manor, or somehow find the means to fight the terror approaching from the northern night!
