

Towards a New Social Housing

Le logement est plus que jamais un sujet d'actualité. Face à la forte demande de logements sociaux, quelle est l'offre architecturale aujourd'hui? Quelle réponse qualitative et innovante donner à cet impératif quantitatif? Quel doit être la part de l'expérimentation dans ce domaine reconnu comme laboratoire de l'architecture depuis l'époque moderne? Quelles sont les nouvelles typologies en phase avec les modes de vie et l'évolution de la société aux prises avec les questions essentielles de la ville contemporaine, et notamment, les enjeux de développement durable, de qualité de vie et de justice sociale? Seize réponses, choisies en France pour leur singularité, leur originalité et leur pertinence, sont présentées et décryptées dans cet ouvrage.
