

Practical Workbook For The Depressed ..

Pull yourself together! Don't get so emotional. It's a sin to be depressed. Pray for a stronger faith. You need to seek forgiveness. Are you depressed? If so, is this the kind of advice you have received from your Christian friends? Or perhaps you have tried to help a depressed friend with similar advice. Has it helped? If not, why not? Here is a practical book written by a Christian doctor for depressed Christians, their families, friends and fellow church members. The book sets out to answer specific questions such as: What is depression? Why should Christians get depressed when they have an all-powerful God on their side? Why does the church often cause extra problems? How should Christians go about tackling depression?
