

Painful Pleasures

Painful Pleasures is a fascinating anthology of mostly fictional writings on flagellation privately printed For Collectors Only in 1931, most probably by Gargoyle Press the cover and title page bear the Gargoyle Press logo. It was issued in a limited edition of 1000 copies with eighteen illustrations by Francis Heuber. The texts comprising the compilation are translated and adapted from various French and English sources by W. J. Meusal. This Birchgrove Press edition of Painful Pleasures reproduces Heubers fabulous black and white illustrations.
