

No Good From a Corpse

NO GOOD FROM A CORPSE by LEIGH BRACKETT (original publication, 1944) Brackett is an author of such diverse talent that it is impossible to know where to begin. As a novelist, she is best known for her work in science fiction, and for the screen was a co-writer for THE EMPIRE STRIKES BACK (1979). She has had great success also, however, with crime and westerns, in story magazines, novels, and screenwriting. This Hammett-esque, hard-boiled detective mystery/revenge thriller was her very first novel, and on its strength was hired by Howard Hawks to co-write the screen adaptation of THE BIG SLEEP (1946).
