

Home Remodeling (Good ideas)

Lack of space for new construction, combined with the amazing surge in real estate prices, has forced architects, designers, and homeowners to look to renovation and remodeling as a solution for creating more space and new design. With 550 dazzling color photographs plus 50 detailed architectural plans, Home Remodeling displays over 40 stunning examples of residential spaces reborn to meet the needs of their owners. Part of the brand-new Good Ideas Series, a collection of books filled with ideas for enhancing the home, the guide includes many remarkable projects - not only homes and primary living spaces, but also garages, barns, offices, shops, and even warehouses. Captivating text and lavish images make this a never-ending source of inspiration for architects, interior designers, and every homeowner in the process of changing, buying, or remodeling a home.
