

The Stories of David Leavitt

This is a complete collection of moving, elegant and often witty short stories from one of Americas most respected writers. Here, David Leavitt covers a range of challenging themes such as illness, grief and betrayal with his inimitable graceful touch. He takes the reader from Switzerland to San Francisco, and from a young mans attempt to contract the HIV virus to American tourists being startled by the local conventions in Italy. Bringing together Family Dancing (a finalist for both the National Book Award and the PEN/Faulkner Prize), A Place Ive Never Been and The Marble Quilt, this edition affirms David Leavitts mastery of the short-story form.
