

My India Part 3 A Wheelof Hope Tour of South India (My India through the eyes of David Calvert-Orange)

Pamela and I spend about three months in each year at our home in Kovalam. We invite people to stay with us and visit Happy Home the tuition and day care centre run by our charity Wheel of Hope. We also take them on the most incredible tours of South India. Western Tourists are rarely seen in any of the fabulous places that are shown in my books. If you stay at our house it costs 7500 for 2 weeks and all that money goes to educating our 200 children at Happy Home. Likewise the money you pay for this book will also go to the charity. In this my third book in the series you will visit temples, palaces and places so beautiful you will think you are in heaven! It features Kanyakumari the southern most tip of India; Rameshwaren, the sacred place of Rama and Hanuman; Madurai the great temple city of Tamil Nadu (together with its wonderful palace; Thanjavur and its beautiful Big Temple of Shiva and museum containing the incredible Chola Bronzes ... featured in a Royal Academy Exhibition in 2006; Palany the exciting temple of Murugan; and finally Kodaikanal where beauty surpasses itself! Come join me in a very inexpensive trip and perhaps you would like to join us for real one day.
