

Doors Open

Three friends descend upon an art auction in search of some excitement. Mike Mackenzie - retired software mogul, bachelor, and fine art enthusiast - wants something that money cant buy. Fellow art lover Allan Cruickshank is bored with his banking career and burdened by a painful divorce. And Robert Gissing, an art professor, is frustrated that so many paintings stay hidden in corporate boardrooms, safes, and private apartments. After the auction - and a chance encounter with crime boss Chib Calloway - Robert and Allan suggest the liberation of several paintings from the National Gallery, hoping Mike will dissuade them. Instead, he hopes they are serious. As enterprising girlfriends, clever detectives, seductive auctioneers, and a Hells Angel named Hate enter the picture, Ian Rankin creates a highly charged thriller, a faced-past story of second guesses and double crosses that keep changing the picture right until the harrowing finish.
