

Japanese Fairy Tales (English Translation)

This is an English translation of Karl Alberti's Japanische Märchen. It contains 24 short fairy tales Karl Alberti translated into German from the original Japanese. This is the first English translation of this book, and most likely, of all of the stories contained therein as well. Originally published in 1913, this translation marks this book's 100th anniversary in 2013. Karl Alberti is the pen name of German writer and professor, Karl Albrecht Heise (1868-1930). He lived in Tokyo. Bradley Hall lives in Jacksonville, Florida and is an educator, writer, and historian.
