

Beijing Journal: A Live, Day-By-Day Account From Backstage At The 2008 Olympics

This is a veteran network TV broadcaster's inside view of Beijing during the 2008 Summer Olympics, the real story behind the story. It's an absolute MUST-READ for anyone who loves sports, and those who want to learn about the miracles that occur backstage to bring world-class sporting events to your home. The author sent live daily reports by e-mail, plus original photos, day by day. They were combined, one by one, into this book. By design, these raw, in-the-moment insights have been largely preserved as written. FULL-COLOR EDITION: Includes rare behind-the-scenes photos, plus links to the author's exclusive online photo gallery with dozens more pictures not available elsewhere!
