

Impetuous Innocent

A New York Times Bestseller After the death of her father, Georgiana Hartley returns home to England -- only to be confronted with the boorish advances of her cousin. Knowing no one, she flees to Dominic Ridgelys estate. The viscount hears Georgianas plea to find her a position as a ladys companion. A lovely innocent such as Miss Hartley subjected to that wretched existence? The very idea is preposterous. Instead, he takes matters into his own hands, introducing her to his sisters influence. Suddenly Georgiana is transformed into a lady, charming the ton and cultivating a bevy of suitors. Everything is unfolding according to Dominics plan . . . until he realizes that he desires Georgiana for his own.
