

The Lonely Hearts Club

Penny is sick of boys and sick of dating, so she vows: No more. Shes had one too many bad dates, and has been hurt by one too many bad boys. Its a personal choice . . . and soon everybody wants to know about it. It seems that Pennys not the only girl whos tired of the way girls change themselves (most of the time for the worse) in order to get their guys . . . or the way their guys dont really care. Girls are soon thronging to The Lonely Hearts Club, and Penny finds herself near legendary for her nondating ways ? which is too bad, since the leader of The Lonely Hearts Club has found a certain boy she cant help but like. . . . In The Lonely Hearts Club, debut author Elizabeth Eulberg tells a very funny, very relatable romantic story for anyone whos ever sworn off love . . . and then found it anyway.
