

Les Miserables (Illustrated)

Jean Valjean (known by his prison number, 24601), wants to become a force for good in the world, but cannot escape his dark past. Les Misérables, by Victor Hugo, follows the lives and interactions of several French characters over a seventeen-year period, starting in 1815 and culminating in the 1832 June Rebellion. Les Misérables is considered historical fiction because it contains factual and historic events.
