

LIBERTINE in the Tudor Court: One Night in Paradise / A Most Unseemly Summer (Mills & Boon M&B)

One Night in Paradise Though Queen Elizabeth Is court at Richmond was a hotbed of illicit liaisons, beautiful Adorna Pickering remained unscathed. Yet the one man she couldnt resist had a reputation blacker than sin. And though Adorna didnt want to be just another easy conquest, shed willingly forsake everything she held dear for one night in Sir Nicholas Raynes arms A Most Unseemly Summer Capable and determined Lady Felice has had to learn how to take care of herself. So she is shocked when the surveyor of her familys new home, Sir Leon Gascelin, forces her to accept him as her temporary guardian. Is it to stop tongues wagging because they reside under the same roof? Or has she deliberately been sent to this dangerously attractive gentleman to be well and truly tamed?
