

Memoirs of an Imaginary Friend: A Novel

Imaginary friend Budo narrates this heartwarming story of love, loyalty, and the power of the imagination the perfect read for anyone who has ever had a friend . . . real or otherwise Budo is lucky as imaginary friends go. Hes been alive for more than five years, which is positively ancient in the world of imaginary friends. But Budo feels his age, and thinks constantly of the day when eight-year-old Max Delaney will stop believing in him. When that happens, Budo will disappear. Max is different from other children. Some people say that he has Aspergers Syndrome, but most just say hes on the spectrum. None of this matters to Budo, who loves Max and is charged with protecting him from the class bully, from awkward situations in the cafeteria, and even in the bathroom stalls. But he cant protect Max from Mrs. Patterson, the woman who works with Max in the Learning Center and who believes that she alone is qualified to care for this young boy. When Mrs. Patterson does the unthinkable and kidnaps Max, it is up to Budo and a team of imaginary friends to save him and Budo must ultimately decide which is more important: Maxs happiness or Budos very existence. Narrated by Budo, a character with a unique ability to have a foot in many worlds imaginary, real, child, and adult Memoirs of an Imaginary Friend touches on the truths of life, love, and friendship as it races to a heartwarming . . . and heartbreaking conclusion.
