

Minnesanger-Kalender 1975; Gotische Holzbildwerke 1976; Plastik des Barock 1977 [Set of Three Art Portfolios]

Three scarce and remarkable calendar-style 11.75 x 15.25 portfolios, each containing 12 large images and a page of background information (in German, English, and French). The 1975 Minnesanger portfolio contains 12 remarkable paintings from the famous Manesse collection (compiled between 1300 & 1330), showing knightly activities and courtly life, chivalry and courtly love. The 1976 Gothic Sculpture in Wood portfolio aptly represents, in 12 photographs, the German styles of wood carving from the 14th to 16th centuries, most examples associated with the Church, but also from the secular crafts guilds. The 1977 Baroque Sculpture portfolio represents a continuation of the German wood-carving tradition, through the 17th and 18th centuries, and reflecting the general differences between visual arts aesthetics in the German Renaissance and Baroque eras, as seen in its 12 striking examples.
