

Medfields Dwight-Derby House:: A Story of Love & Persistence (Landmarks)

Constructed in 1651, the Dwight-Derby House stands as the centerpiece of the Medfield town common and at the heart of the towns history. Contained within the walls of this 350-year-old time capsule are the stories of two prominent families: the Dwights and the Derbys--united in their deep connection to the home. To this day, the house remains a testament to the dedication and fortitude of the community, which banded together and succeeded in preserving this historic landmark. Join Electa Tritsch on her journey of sifting through records, artifacts and dusty cardboard boxes as she enlivens the story of the Dwight-Derby House--a home that has brought out the best of this thriving community.
