

Carlo III (Italian Edition)

Il libro segue le vicende biografiche del Sovrano borbonico inserite nella realtà politica, socio-economica ed ecclesiastica del Mezzogiorno d'Italia e della Spagna del secolo XVIII. Carlo acquisì la necessaria esperienza di governo durante la venticinquennale permanenza sul trono di Napoli. Nella penisola iberica il Sovrano - mantenendo sempre stretti rapporti con il toscano Bernardo Tanucci, grande personalità culturale e politica, suo principale consigliere nel governo napoletano - seppe circondarsi di collaboratori fedeli e capaci, sia stranieri che nazionali, da Wall a Squillace e Grimaldi, da Campomanes ad Aranda e Floridablanca. Durante il governo di quest'ultimo, le cui iniziative Carlo III assecondò con convinzione, si intensificò nella politica interna spagnola l'attività riformatrice nel quadro di un assolutismo monarchico sempre più ispirato a principi illuministici, comunque compatibili con il paternalismo che distinse sempre l'operato del Sovrano. Negli ultimi anni di vita di Carlo III, grazie a un'efficace azione militare e diplomatica, si consolidò la posizione internazionale della Spagna, che riuscì a recuperare Minorca e ad ampliare i possedimenti coloniali. L'azione di Carlo III presenta quindi un bilancio complessivamente positivo per cui viene giustamente considerato il migliore Sovrano della dinastia borbonica ispanica.
