

Will to Power: Antichrist. Revaluation of All Values

Given that the original title appears as: The Antichrist. Revaluation of All Values (and therefore not The first book of the revaluation of all values), you may think that your brother at the time of his incipient madness, thought the book completed. Notwithstanding, the consequences of this revaluation must also be explicitly illustrated in the field of morality, philosophy, politics. No one today is able to imagine such consequences that's why the vast preparations by your brother, the other three books of the Revaluation, must be ordered according to my suggestion and gathered in a kind of system.
