

Quilters in Prison

Note: Carl Quiltman does not write standard quilt mystery fiction. He writes cross-genre short stories that usually contain a spiritual element, with a touch of absurdist humor. They will always sell for 99 cents.---- ---- ---- ---- Two of the most talented quilters in the world are in a womens prison in Chino. Sharon is in for arson. Vera is in for murder. Two women could not be more different from each other. Maxine is friends with Vera and has been granted visiting privileges. When the day finally arrives for the visit, no one could have possibly foreseen the strange twists of fate the day would bring.
