

Student Support & Benefits Handbook: England & Wales 2004/05

CPAG and the National Union of Students joined forces to provide this definitive, up-to-date guide to financial support for students in England and Wales. It is fully indexed and cross-referenced to law and regulations. It also contains useful summary tables on entitlement to benefits and treatment of student income, and sample sheets for calculating benefit entitlement. Written for student claimants and their advisers, this is a comprehensive guide to: entitlement to means-tested benefits for both full and part-time students; claiming tax credits while studying; student support for further and higher education; financial support when taking time out from studying; health service benefits; council tax; how student income is treated for social security benefit, health benefit and tax credit purposes; tax matters that affect students. Like all CPAG handbooks this is fully indexed and cross-referenced to law and regulations. It also contains useful summary tables on entitlement to benefits and treatment of student income, and sample sheets for calculating benefit entitlement. Readership will include advice workers, money advisers, bursary officers, student services officers and of course students themselves. The book will be revised and updated annually.
