

Sadopaideia

I smacked more severely. Her bottom became appreciably warmer. Harder still, she said, harder! I did as she said, and my own hand began to tingle. The joy and lust of domination began to grow in me. After one or two really hard blows, she shifted slightly and heaved her bottom, opening her legs a little. I gave her several harder smacks. She sighed and wriggled. I stopped. Go on, she said at once. But I'm hurting you. I want you to hurt me, she murmured fiercely. I want you to hurt my bottom. Can't you see it growing red and hot? Hurt me, hurt me. Her passion, though I didn't really understand it, fired me, and I took her at her word. Blow after blow fell on her plump cheeks and at length her sighs came quicker and quicker and became more like gasps. Her bottom heaved and opened and contracted, her legs parted and I could see the lips of her pussy parting and closing again as if eager for satisfaction. Sadopaideia is a classic Victorian erotic novel, published in 1907. It contains graphic sexual descriptions and themes.
