

Standing Up with Gaaxstalas: Jane Constance Cook and the Politics of Memory, Church, and Custom (Women and Indigenous Studies)

Standing Up with Gaaxstalas is a compelling conversation with the colonial past initiated by the descendants of Kwakwakawakw leader and activist, Jane Constance Cook (1870-1951). Drawing from oral histories, archival materials, and historical and anthropological works, they offer a nuanced portrait of a high-ranked woman who was a cultural mediator; devout Christian; and activist for land claims, fishing and resource rights, and adequate health care.
