Magic is no match for love.... Trapped somewhere between life and death, demigod Cyril has lost the ability to communicate with his love. But not before giving her valuable lessons in magic, as well as his blessing to move on without him. Coming to terms with Cyrils absence isnt easy, but Linden is doing her best to honor his wishes. Until she receives an unusual request from Moreaux, an estranged member of Cyrils family. Bizarre things are going on with Mary, the former housekeeper, and Linden cant let them go. But when her investigation leads to a mistake that nearly costs her life, Cyrils best friend, Overton, steps in and violates a promise he made centuries before to bring her back from the dead. Gratitude turns to comfort, comfort turns to desire, and desire leads Linden to a shocking revelation. In her charge to uncover the truth behind Mary and Moreaux, she discovers a spell she cant undo without leaving wounds on her heart, wounds she knows will never heal....
