

The Best Laid Plans

Dear Diary: This morning I met the man I am going to marry, is the first entry in Leslie Stewart's diary. Little does she know of the dramatic chain of events that would occur. Beautiful, ambitious Leslie soon learns that for some men, power is the greatest aphrodisiac - and Oliver Russell, the handsome governor of a small Southern state, finds out why hell has no fury like a woman scorned. Oliver wants to win the White House, while Leslie plans to make him wish he'd never been born. Best-selling author Sidney Sheldon delivers another thriller full of his characteristic twists and turns that takes listeners inside the world of politics with its scandals and corruption, and the newspaper industry, where the power of the press can destroy lives in pursuit of a story. This unabridged version is read by actor, composer, and director John Rubinstein, who won a Tony Award for his performance in Children of a Lesser God.
