

The Debt

Johnny Frank has just been released from prison, and intends to have his payback. After convincing his betrayer, ruthless Jim Buckley, that hes on the up-and-up, the incentive of an imaginary haul of diamonds along with a more immediate cash sweetener is enough to secure an invitation to his home. Once there, Johnny subtly begins to spread suspicion. Johnny plays the first of his hands; he makes the Buckyles an offer theyve been waiting for a cut of the proceeds if they help him recover his stash. What the Buckyles dont know is that this is part of Johnnys plan to destroy their family. But plans go awry when Buckyles son, Marc, is taken hostage, and his ransom is the same bogus stash. Pretending to be moved by their pleas, Johnny goes to London accompanied, despite his protests, by Marcs wife, the confident Simone to meet the kidnapers demands. At first, Simone is appalled by the cold-blooded gangster Johnny Frank. But when the two grow unexpectedly close, Johnny feels obligated to break the bad news to Simone: he cant find Marc. Johnny and Simone put the pieces together and set out together for some dual payback in this endlessly entertaining tale from Londons mean streets.
