

Romancing the Brush: An Austin, Texas Art Mystery (The Michelle Hodge Series Book 3)

Have you ever known something without knowing why? Thirty-year-old Shell Hodge seems to have it all: a great life with Dean, the man of her dreams, and an art career that is taking off. But when one of the partners in her gallery is murdered, Shell's life goes into a tailspin. She is thrown into a fearful state as memories of her parents' deaths surface, and she finds herself worrying about her relationship with Dean while she puzzles over the murder. To make matters worse, Shell's ex-boyfriend intrudes into a family visit at just the wrong moment, causing a rift between herself and Dean just when she needs him most. She is on her own again, and a killer is on the loose. Will she work out her troubles with Dean, or is it already too late? Shell has gone missing. This is Book 3 of The Michelle Hodge Series, but it reads perfectly as a standalone.
