

The One I Knew The Best Of All (illustrated)

The One I Knew The Best Of All : A Memory Of The Mind Of A Child by Frances Hodgson Burnett, with the original line drawings Reginald B. Birch. Mrs. K D Wiggin. This Memory of the Mind of a Child has the engaging candor and transparency of all sincere autobiography, yet it is revealed with such exquisite delicacy and absence of self-consciousness that we forget that the child heroine is Mrs. Burnett in youth. The authors childish impressions described in an interesting way. Shows the mental development of a very human and imaginative child. Literary world (Boston)
