

Pennsylvania Lion or Panther & Felis Catus in Pennsylvania? (Metalmark)

This Metalmark volume combines two of Henry W. Shoemakers pamphlets, both published by Shoemakers Times Tribune Co., which also published his newspaper, the Altoona Tribune. Pennsylvania Lion or Panther, published in 1914, provides a narrative look into the history and romance of Pennsylvanias mountain lion. Hunting lore and legends mix with local and natural history and Shoemakers musings on the disappearance of this once prevalent animal. The pages are dedicated to J. T. Rothrock, whose description of the mountain lions haunting cry graces the pages of this text. The second pamphlet, Felis Catus in Pennsylvania?, gathers reports of the 1922 capture of a wildcat in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, which many speculated was a European wildcat.
