

A History of the French Legation in Texas (Fred Rider Cotten Popular History Series)

This readable and thoroughly documented volume relates the fascinating story of the French Legation in Austin. The oldest house in the city, it was built in 1840-1841 as the residence of the French charge d'affaires to the fledgling Republic of Texas. Alphonse Dubois, the self-styled Count de Saligny, dazzled frontier Texans with elegant parties until he was recalled after less than a year in Austin.
