

For the Sake of the Vine

A phone call in the middle of the night shatters the lives of twins Zachary and Angelina Bartlett. A plane crash into shark infested waters has claimed the lives of their father, Master Winemaker Horst Bartlett, and wicked stepmother Tilda. Forced to return to the family vineyard to oversee the completion of the latest Merlot, the twins are confronted by the dark secrets of their fathers sordid past. With Kestrel Vintners, the regions premier winery, just next door and Zachs high school sweetheart offering them the financial deal of their dreams, the pressure is on to sell and get out quick. But when clues surface from the midnight realm of their fathers chilling obsession the twins begin to question each other and the details surrounding their own mothers untimely death. And now, another beautiful woman has gone missing. Coincidence or is history repeating itself? With winemaking in their veins, will the twins succumb to the call of the grapes or be consumed by their own dark obsessions?
